Fight like an Angel

Blood Drive

Our sixth grader, Angel was diagnosed with T -cell Leukemia on May 3, 2017. Did you know that Angel receives blood or platelet transfusions every day? Sometimes we're faced with a situation and we don't know how to help but giving blood to help Angel and other warriors like her is something we can do.

What can you do?

- Donate. Reserve your time today by signing up on the Red Cross website. After school hours, our older students will provide child care activities available while you donate.
  Who else in your family can donate? Anyone 17 and over (16 with parent consent).

- Spread the word. Our goal is at least 100 people. Let everyone know that we have a blood drive coming up and it's really easy to save up to three lives. If you would like a poster for work or an electronic Jpeg please email school parent, Annemarie Wood at mrsannemariewood@yahoo.com.

- Help out. We would love an extra hand that evening, especially from our middle school and student council students, but a few parents too would be great. If you can help please email Annemarie (see above).

Dear Student

Volunteering helps develop a sense of self-efficacy. You know that other people need help or that there are projects that could make a community better. Volunteering can make a difference.

Volunteers gain experience working with other people. When people come together to engage in a task, issues of communication, power, collaboration and trust rise to the surface in a supportive context.

Volunteers learn a lot. In the process of joining with others in service, volunteers learn about their community and the larger world.

Volunteers actually make a difference in other people's lives.

Please consider volunteering at our upcoming Blood Drive on Monday, February 26. Not only are you supporting Angel and other people with Leukemia, but also people that are in accidents, get transplants, have anemia, go through open heart surgery, or have severe burns. Lots of people need blood for lots of reasons and even if you can't donate yourself, you're still a hero when you help.

Please let us know when and how you would like to help and don't forget to get an adult's signature. Return the form below by Wednesday, Feb. 21. If your parents have any questions please direct them to Mrs. Wood at mrsannemariewood@yahoo.com.

Thanks
Mrs. Wood
